Addie focuses her practice on business litigation. She draws on experience gained while serving in the Office of the Counselor to the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court and through federal judicial clerkships in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

Most recently, serving as a United States Supreme Court Fellow in the Office of the Counselor to the Chief Justice, Addie assisted with a variety of initiatives supporting the federal judiciary, including conducting briefings for guests of foreign governments and contributing to scholarly research.

Addie also previously served as a judicial law clerk to the Hon. J. Philip Calabrese and the Hon. Benita Y. Pearson of the Northern District of Ohio.

Addie earned her J.D., cum laude, from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. While in law school, she served as editor in chief of the Ohio State Journal of Criminal Law, was a legal writing fellow for the university's LL.M. program, and participated in the Student Bar Association. She earned her B.A., summa cum laude, from Capital University where she was a member of the women's basketball team.

In her free time Addie enjoys reading, swimming, and spending time with her friends and family.
