St. Louis - 314.345.4769

Andrea is a seasoned paralegal, supporting attorneys and clients through all phases of litigation. She manages complex, document-intensive case files, drafts pleadings and discovery materials, and prepares subpoenas across multiple jurisdictions. She is also experienced in trial preparation and support and works closely with clients, consultants, and expert witnesses.

With a career spanning from supporting solo practitioners to working on legal teams at large law firms, Andrea possesses a broad understanding of litigation needs, particularly related to product liability, medical malpractice, and personal injury defense. She also has experience in securities, probate, divorce, and corporate law.

Andrea leverages her advanced legal research skills and proficiency in a variety of legal technology systems to streamline case management and help attorneys deliver first-class legal services
