Cleveland - 216.583.7374

Christeena represents clients in complex litigation and business disputes. She drafts and analyzes pleadings, conducts targeted legal research, and develops clear, organized case materials that support effective advocacy in state and federal courts.

Christeena's litigation experience includes working with the firm both before and after the merger that formed UB Greensfelder. She previously worked as a law clerk and summer associate, supporting litigation and transactional teams. Her legal training also includes work with Case Western Reserve University's Kramer Law Clinic, where she handled matters in the Health Law Clinic, the Wills & Trusts Clinic, and the IP Law Clinic. She gained additional exposure to legal operations during her time as a regulatory analyst with AmTrust Financial Services.

Christeena earned her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law. During law school, she was selected as a law school ambassador, representing the institution through outreach efforts and engagement with prospective students and community partners. Before beginning her legal career, Christeena completed three years of medical school and holds a B.S. in biology with minors in chemistry and mathematics from the University of North Carolina.

Outside of her practice, Christeena enjoys hiking and exploring new trails. She also creates realist art inspired by the landscapes and people she comes across, sharing many of her pieces on her art social media account. At home, she loves cooking for friends and family and especially enjoys bringing people together through food.
