Cleveland - 216.583.7250

Danielle is an experienced litigation attorney with a strong background in civil and business matters. She partners closely with clients to navigate all phases of litigation, from developing case strategies to negotiating and securing favorable resolutions. Danielle is known for her practical, results-driven counsel and her ability to effectively advocate on behalf of her clients.

Prior to joining UB Greensfelder, Danielle gained extensive experience drafting legal memoranda, including pleadings, motions, briefs, and discovery, as well as taking depositions and preparing materials for trial.

Danielle earned her B.S. and MAcc from Miami University and her J.D., cum laude, from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School. While in law school, she served on the WMU Cooley Law Review, as treasurer of the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, and as a team leader for the Just the Beginning Foundation. She also won the school's Solo Mock Trial Evidence Competition and completed externships with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan and the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office. After graduation, Danielle spent a summer as a volunteer attorney for the Ohio Eighth District Court of Appeals.

Outside of the office, Danielle enjoys spending time with her family and running long distances.
