Drawing on more than 25 years of corporate law experience, Kurt Mueller takes pride in “knowing his audience” – whether representing a VC fund that regularly engages in M&A transactions or a client who is selling a family business in a once-in-a-lifetime transaction.

Kurt’s practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, venture capital and private equity investments, fund formations and sophisticated joint venture transactions. His experience also includes corporate governance, credit facilities, employment agreements, leases, intellectual property agreements and all manner of other agreements documenting business transactions. Kurt’s clients have included private equity and venture capital funds, family offices, businesses of all sizes from start-ups to large multinational companies, hedge funds and individual investors.

In addition, Kurt’s experience includes working as in-house counsel for a large bank’s private equity and strategic investing business, where he advised investment professionals on portfolio company acquisitions and dispositions, including applicable banking regulatory matters. He has also been a partner and senior counsel at several large law firms.
