

Nina Garden Windsor

Counsel

nwindsor@ubglaw.com

St. Louis - 314.345.4744

In addition to devising and implementing wealth transfer and estate planning strategies, Nina also handles the administration of trusts and estates, including a wide array of probate matters, working with probate courts in many jurisdictions. During the process of trust administration, Nina prioritizes coordination and communication between all relevant parties, focusing on alleviating the stress and confusion that may arise during the administrative process.

Before joining UB Greensfelder, Nina was managing partner of an estate planning and administration firm and previously worked for a national litigation firm, where she facilitated the resolution of estate and probate matters.
